1. Principal Duties

Wildwood Trust are seeking to employ a keeper to focus on the husbandry and conservation of a range of bird species across Wildwood.

1. Duties

- Assist with the preparation of approved diets and carrying out the correct feeding procedures whilst maintaining high standards of hygiene, equipment care and house-keeping as routine part of daily duties.
- Contribute to the development of high standards of husbandry and welfare, supporting the development of innovative, enriching and aesthetic enclosures with the team.
- Assisting Living Collection colleagues, with veterinary, training, behaviour, enrichment and other relevant bird related procedures
- Assist in the hand and crèche rearing of species, including those for release in conservation projects such as red-billed chough.
- Support the team working in incubation and rearing facilities. Support conservation projects for bird species subject to release.
- Assist in the training and presentation of a number of predatory bird species for the free flight displays.
- Present relevant material at conferences or in media based situations as required.
- Present keeper talks as requested and support positive visitor experiences by answering questions in a friendly and helpful manner, ensuring that visitors leave with a good impression of the Living Collections team and Wildwood as an experience. Demonstrate knowledge of the role of a modern animal collection in terms of conservation, research and education.
- Familiarity and compliance with all health and safety protocols and documentation. This includes emergency procedures, risk assessment and safe working practices.
- As requested by the Head keeper or assistant head keeper, or other departments support broader Wildwood activities such as late evening/ weekend functions, animal encounters, PR photo calls/filming, VIP encounters, Keeper for a Day, and other Wildwood events.
- Inputting animal records and data onto daily record sheets and the ZIMS database etc.
- Support internal communication through presenting work to internal Wildwood colleagues at appropriate forums. Be collaborative with all Wildwood departments and within the wider zoo community.
- Some media work may be required which will involve speaking confidently and comprehensively.

2. Expectations of Job Holder

- To ensure that the policy for equality and diversity is adhered to and promoted in all aspects of the post holder's work.
- Demonstrate professionalism towards sensitive and confidential information.
- To comply with and promote health and safety policies and procedures and to undertake recommended Health and Safety training as and when necessary.
- Take responsibility for furthering your knowledge by liaising with experienced colleagues, or those with specific knowledge of different species.
- To be committed to professional self-development, through participation in in-service training as necessary for the successful carrying out of the job.
- To undertake such other duties as are commensurate with the grade of the post.

NB: This job description is designed to outline a range of main duties that may be encountered. It is not designed to be an exhaustive list of tasks and can be varied in consultation with the post holder in order to reflect changes in the job or the organisation.

3. Other Considerations

1. The post is advertised as full time. It will require occasional weekend, bank holiday and evening working.
2. This role will be extensively outside working with direct exposure to the weather and animals.
3. No person shall be treated less favourably than another on the grounds of sex, sexual orientation, marital status, race, ethnic or national origin, religion, colour, age or disability. As an equal opportunities employer, applicants for staff vacancies shall be short listed for interview and appointed purely on the grounds of their suitability for the post as laid out in the advertised job description.
4. Wildwood operates a no smoking policy in the park and in its offices.

4. Employment Package

1. This post is advertised as 37.5 hours per week over 5 days with an unpaid half an hour for lunch. The job will involve overtime, including some evening and weekend working as part of your normal duties.
2. The pro rata holiday allowance is 30 days a year, this includes statutory holidays.
3. Appointments are subject to confirmation after a six-month probation period.
4. Wildwood offers access to a stake holder pension, details of which will be supplied on confirmation in post.
